

DELIVERING YOUR CONTENT TO EVERY CORNER OF THE WORLD

Mimeo's platform enables users to build and proof content, and then distribute it anywhere on earth.

Rollouts to hundreds of locations. One button to order.

Customers that need to ship printed materials to multiple locations use Mimeo Address Book to do so. For example, a fast-food brand needs to ship a new training manual to all 400 of its restaurant locations. What do they do? Click a button, and the manual arrives to all 400 locations.

Features

1 click within Mimeo's address book enables you to select a single location to hundreds of locations to ship your order to.

Benefits

Headquarters are able to send critical information to all of their stores as early as the next morning.

Management has access to reorder on-going materials, ensuring constant productivity when training new hires.
